

This publication is designed to provide accurate and authoritative information in regard to the subject matter covered. It is sold with the understanding that the publisher is not engaged in rendering legal, accounting, or other professional service. If legal advice or other expert assistance is required, the services of a competent professional should be sought.

—From a Declaration of Principles jointly adopted by a committee of the American Bar Association and a committee of publishers and associations.

The publisher, editors and authors must disclaim any liability, in whole or in part, arising from the information in this volume. The reader is urged to verify the reference material prior to any detrimental reliance thereupon. Neurology is a rapidly changing field. Care has been taken to ensure that the information provided within this text is accurate and conforms to standards of practice at the time of publication. However, new research and clinical experience may change treatment recommendations. Therefore, neither the publisher, editors, authors, nor any other party involved in the preparation or publication of this book warrants that the information contained herein is in every aspect accurate or complete. Readers should verify drug dosage and other information with other reliable sources and are urged to review the package insert for each medication to verify dosages, indications, warnings, and precautions. Neither publisher, editors or authors are rendering professional advice or services to individual readers.
